

TRACK 25 - FARTING CHIPMUNK [5m04s]

KEVIN MC DONALD

The following is from conversations had with Kev, so it will be missing bits & will be updated at some point soon.

This will be a spoof of different characters trying to start their own cult, or trying to join various cults. It may be kind of like the 'groups' from Fight Club, going to their various cult.

There will be anything from Jesus teaching through to the 'Cult Of One', where there's only one bloke coz no-one will join him.

Characters from other videos will either be teaching or learning.

There will be one class of people being taught in the way of Men In Speedos'. And of course one for chipmunks since that's the name of the song.

REQUIRED:

Classroom - one classroom can be re-dressed for each class; posters & props for each cult class; cult leaders (some of which will be from other videos); cult followers (some of which will come from other videos); outfits or props for each cult if necessary

Probably a 2 day shoot. One camera shoot.
